

SLA website to apply for:

Facilities Maintenance Technician

Description:

The Facilities Maintenance Technician is responsible for servicing structural components, mechanical systems, and specialized equipment at San Luis Ambulance Facilities ensure compliance with industry and company standards.

Essential Functions:

- Perform routine preventative maintenance and inspections on facility systems and equipment.
- Diagnose and repair mechanical, electrical, plumbing, and HVAC issues.
- Work on various building components, including lighting, door systems, and ventilation.
- Conduct repairs on floors, walls, ceilings, and exterior structures.
- Maintain service records and documentation for all repairs and inspections.
- Ensure compliance with safety and regulatory standards.
- Handle installation and maintenance of facility fixtures and appliances.
- Utilize lifts, ladders, and scaffolding to access work areas safely.
- Use diagnostic equipment and specialized tools for facility system repairs.
- Operate hand and power tools, including drills, saws, grinders, and pneumatic equipment.

Experience, Education, Skills

- Experience with HVAC, plumbing, electrical systems, and general construction.
- Certification in HVAC, electrical, or plumbing systems preferred.
- Minimum of 2 years of experience in facility maintenance, building repairs or construction trades
- Familiarity with fire suppression systems and building safety standards.
- Ability to use diagnostic tools.
- Carpentry experience a plus.
- A driving record that meets company policy regarding insurability